SUBJECT RABBLE ROUSER INDEX

(RACIAL INTELLIGENCE SECTION)

Re Little Rock let to Bureau, 12/21/67; and Bulet to Little Rock, 1/3/68. A

ReBulet requested Little Rock to re-evaluate the activities of and

, who had previously been identified as potential trouble makers, and for Little Rock to make recommendations as to whether these individuals should be included in the Rabble Rouser Index. U

A review of Little Rock files fails to reveal that Little Rock possesses any additional information concerning any of the above captioned individuals in addition to that information supplied to the Bureau by LHM dated 7/29/67 captioned "POSSIBLE RACIAL DISTURBANCE, TEXARKANA, ARKANSAS, AND TEXAS, 7/28/67." In view of this, it is not possible at this time to make a specific recommendation as to whether any or all of the above-mentioned individuals should be included in the Rabble Rouser Index. For this reason, the Little Rock Office at this time is opening separate cases on each of these individuals, background information will be obtained, attempts to determine their current activities and sympathies will be made, and as soon as feasible specific recommendations will be made to the Bureau as to whether any or all of these individuals should be included in the Rabble Rouser Index. w

SUCCINCT RESUME OF ACTIVITIES

As the President of the Bogalusa Voters League, A. Z. YOUNG has organized and led civil rights demonstration and marches in Louisiana. He has concentrated his activities in the Bogalusa area and there have been numerous racial incidents in that city which are characteristic of a racially tense area. YOUNG has met with the Mayor of Bogalusa, Louisiana and other political leaders on numerous occasions and has presented Negro grievances to them at these times. YOUNG has also been active in Negro voter registration in the Bogalusa area. ω

On July 10 and 11, 1966, YOUNG led a march sponsored by the Bogalusa Voters League (BVL) from Bogalusa to Franklinton, Louisiana. Upon arrival at the Washington Parish, Louisiana, Courthouse on July 11, 1966, YOUNG was one of several speakers whose speeches dealt mostly with "Black Power" and the aims of the Negroes in Washington Parish, Louisiana.

According to an article in the New Orleans Times-Picayune newspaper, January 11, 1966, YOUNG told newsmen during an interview that if violence should erupt during this march he "believed in protecting my own" but would not further elaborate. There was a sign during this march which read, "Move over or we'll move you over - We're the greatest." During the march the marchers chanted "The Ku Klux Klan must go." YOUNG also was attributed in making a statement if any incidents occurred "We will march all the way to the State capitol in Baton Rouge."

YOUNG also was the leader of a Negro march on July 23-24, 1967, sponsored by the Bogalusa Voters League from Bogalusa to Franklinton, Louisiana.

Upon arrival at the Washington Parish Courthouse on July 24, 1967, YOUNG was among several speakers all of whom espoused "Black Power." During his talk YOUNG told the assembled crowd that he was tired of marching and that the Negroes in Watts received benefits when they burned Watts and that "We're going to burn in the State of Louisiana." U legitimate Negro civil rights leaders in Dayton. He was a member of the CP at Dayton, Ohio, from 1946 until 1948 according to ARTHUR PAUL STRUNK, a self-admitted CP member at Dayton. He has been in contact with JESSE GRAY, who led a Harlam rent strike and who according to a confidential source in 1958 was the organizer of the Harlam Region of the CP during that year when the position was terminated.

YOUNG also led a march of the BVL from Bogalusa, Louisiana, to Baton Rouge, Louisiana, on August 10-20, 1967.

Some years ago MC INTOSH had an organization named the West Side Citizen's Counsel in the Dayton West side which is predominantly Negro. He later obtained a charter for a local chapter for the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) becoming its local chairman; however, he was relieved of this chairmanship when National CORE revoked the local charter in about 1964. MC INTOSH then formed the Non-Violent Direct Action Committee (NVDAC), a local civil rights group, but on 6/7/66, was ousted as its director because of unpaid bills, bad check, failure to take action on complaints and threatening to picket business establishments if they did not contribute to The Dayton Police Department has received various complaints about MC INTOSH threatening to picket businesses if contributions were not made. He has frequently complained about police brutality. He has had no visible means of support. u

Several years ago he picketed one of the large department stores, alleging discrimination in hiring, eventually engaging in a sit-in during which he was arrested. At the beginning of the racial disturbance in Dayton on 9/1/66, he demanded a meeting with city officials under threat of a full scale riot. City officials refused to meet with him and a full scale riot did not materialize although he attempted to organize rioters without gaining real support. He seeks public attention to build himself as a Negro leader but is not recognized as such by responsible civil rights Negro leaders in Dayton. ω

In November, 1966, he was an independent candidate for the State Legislature but was not elected, receiving few votes compared to the other candidates. He has participated in various demonstrations, sit-ins and protests on local and national civil rights groups as well as in protests on the Vietnam war. A

In December, 1966, he was a leader in urging a rent strike at the Joy Homes, a Federal housing project. ~

On January 14, 1967, he was involved in picketing in front of the Federal Building protesting the handling of ADAM CLAYTON POWELL. He threatened demonstrations on 5/6/67 and 5/13/67 in Dayton and on 6/12/67 in Dayton with four other persons. He appeared at the Supporting Counsel on Preventive Effort (SCOPE) Headquarters for about 20 minutes in protest of failure to authorize adequate funds for Moving Ahead Together (MAT), a subordinate anti-poverty agency under SCOPE.

He invited H. RAP BROWN of SNCC to speak at a West Dayton job rally which was held on 6/14/67, at the Wesley Community Center with H. RAP BROWN and WILLIE RICKS in attendance as speakers. Both of these individuals are officers of the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee.

Several years ago MC INTOSH was also involved in the Organization for Black Power, a meeting for which was scheduled for Dayton, but cancelled.

On 9/6/67, MC INTOSH issued a statement through the news that a Black Power Convention would be held in Dayton 9/23-24/67, with Dayton chosen because of a warrant issued for the arrest of H. RAP BROWN and because of denial of Federal funds to MAT.

On 9/22/67, it was learned that this convention had been cancelled with no reason given.

In October, 1967, MC INTOSH pled not guilty to local charges of resisting police officers and assault and battery after he and his wife became embroiled with the police over a charge of violating Dayton's anti-noise ordinance. Complaint had been made that the MC INTOSHs were using a loud speaker to familiarize people in the West Side community with their House of Knowledge, which MC INTOSH claims is a place where "they can read and secure literature on the Black Revolution". MC INTOSH said the House of Knowledge is a family business.

CI 100-8104

SUCCINCT RESUME OF ACTIVITIES

As member of CP, USA in New York City, came to Buffalo, N.Y., in 1954 as a colonizer in CP Underground. Remained active CP member until late 1961; expelled for factional activity, and helped form Progressive Labor Party (PLP). Dropped from PLP in April, 1964, in personality clash with other leaders, and later formed JBIMS in Buffalo to spread Marxism. In past three years has been in forefront of all student left protest demonstrations and campus radical activities at State University of New York at Buffalo (SUNYAB). As editor of "The Buffalo Insighter," has attacked the U.S. for its Vietnam policy, for alleged imperialism, big business, monopolies, protested Selective Service, House Committee on Un-American Activities and the FBI. He is often public spokesman at protest demonstrations, and is said to wield potent influence over young radicals.

Re SAC Letter 67-70, dated 11/28/67, and Charlotte letter to Bureau, 12/21/67.

In referenced Charlotte letter to Bureau,
Charlotte advised that and REGINALD ARMISTICE HAWKINS were being submitted as nominations to the Charlotte Rabble Rouser Index. Appropriate write-ups have been made and submitted to the Bureau on these individuals in referenced Charlotte letter.

Previously, Charlotte recommended and subsequently received Bureau approval for inclusion of GOLDEN ASRO FRINKS to the Charlotte Rabble Rouser Index. ω

Charlotte continues to screen individuals residing within the Division and will make additional recommendations for inclusion in the Rabble Rouser Index as appropriate.

ALL INFORMATION CONTAINED HEREIN IS UNCLASSIFIED DATE 4-21-80 BY 59-1654/10

Re Bureau letter 12/20/67, instructing that Kansas City submit recommendations as to exclusion or inclusion, in captioned matter of ALVIN L. BROOKS and MICHAEL JAMES MILLER, based on Kansas City letterhead memorandum (LHM) dated May 3, 1967, captioned "POSSIBLE RACIAL VIOLENCE, MAJOR URBAN AREAS - KANSAS CITY DIVISION, RACIAL MATTERS", which indicated that BROOKS had indicated "some possible accord" with STOKELY CARMICHAEL; and that MILLER had been active in questionable or subversive groups on the west coast prior to coming to Kansas City, Missouri, about the first of 1967.

A careful evaluation of voluminous information and of opinions of reliable sources indicate that BROOKS and MILLER should not be recommended for inclusion in captioned index at this time, for the following reasons:

At the time of referenced LHM, BROOKS' definition of the catch-words "Black Power", reported by local news media, appeared to indicate (erroneously, it follows) that BROOKS might be in "some possible accord" with the militant, separatist, or violent concept of "Black Power", as defined by STOKELY CARMICHAEL, H. "RAP" BROWN, and other nationally publicized leaders of SNCC and CORE. However, at the time BROOKS' definition was publicized, "busy" Kansas City news, media were publicizing definitions and discussions of "Black Power" by several other and reputable local Negro leaders, which differed little from BROOKS' purported definition. Such Negro leaders included HAROLD L. HOLLIDAY, Kansas City attorney, Missouri State legislator, and State Head of the NAACP; LEE V. SWEATTEN Kansas City attorney, Metropolitan President of the NAACP, sometimes acting municipal judge, and recently appointed County Counsellor;

LOUNNEER PEMBERTON, Executive Director, Kansas City, Missouri, Urban League; and GEORGE HALEY, Kansas City, Kansas, attorney and Kansas State Senator. None of these, including BROOKS, has espoused or recognized the concept of Black Separatism, or a necessity or inevitability of violence; rather, they recognize in varying degrees a need for greater Negro leadership and participation in community solutions of Negro problems, not to exclude white leadership and participation; their beliefs definitely oppose the separatist belief of only "black folks doing black folks' business".

FOIA(b)7 - (D)

As chairman of the small local Kansas City, Missouri, CORE Chapter (consisting of approximately forty active members, a substantial number of which is white), BROOKS has followed the example for several years of his predecessors, that is, local CORE's following a course independent of NAACP and most other local legitimate civil rights groups; this is a normal situation apparently for, in fact, the experience of all leaders of separate civil rights organizations in Greater Kansas City is that they must try to resolve factional and political problems in their own organizations. W

Known personality traits, pressures, and background of BROOKS would require a lengthy documentation. In brief, BROOKS, age 35, heads a Catholic family of several children and takes care of several other underprivileged children in his home. BROOKS worked hard for years as a Kansas City, Missouri, Police Department Patrolman for a promotion and at the same time attended graduate night coursestowards a Masters Degree in Sociology for several years at the University of Missouri at Kansas City, Missouri, both unsuccessfully. BROOKS was commended several times as a patrolman, but apparently was not promoted due to an offensive personality trait of too much "I" and ego. Some of BROOKS' resentment toward the Kansas City, Missouri, PD seems understandable to some, based on his ambitions, industry, and commended ability, though he finally resigned from the Kansas City, Missouri, PD, feeling his nonpromotion was due to racial discrimination. Since his resignation, he worked long hours several months, despite some periods of physical ailment, for a city welfare agency, in a Catholic Charities Center for the poor; for the past several months he has had a responsible job paying about $11,000.00 a year under ROBERT WHEELER, Negro Assistant Superintendent of Schools, in handling large Federal aid funds in areas of need.

During his first year as Local CORE Chapter Chairman, BROOKS was also a vice president of the Council for United Action (CUA). Apparently feeling CUA was getting too much credit, publicity-wise, in demanding and obtaining employment of Negroes through peaceful picketing and economic boycotts, BROOKS began such tactics successfully himself against certain retailers with small representations of CORE members during the summer of 1967. Though BROOKS' tactics of demonstration did not receive participating support of other civil rights groups, the employment results obtained were not disapproved by outstanding community Negro leadership. A climax to BROOKS' apparent differences with CUA came at CUA's annual election convention in November, 1967, when BROOKS led CORE delegates in a walk-out from the convention over alleged undemocratic election procedures.

Such reputable Negro leaders as LEE SWINTON and LOUNNEER PEMBERTON, outstanding liaison contacts of the Kansas City Division, frequently have expressed definite knowledgeable beliefs that BROOKS, to date, is not only opposed to, and has created no, tensions toward a potential for violence, but is a responsible leader of CORE as a legitimate civil rights group. SWINTON and PEMBERTON reiterated these beliefs on 12/27/67. A

An article in the Kansas City Times, daily Kansas City, Missouri, newspaper, dated 12/28/67 reflects BROOKS' overwhelming victory in re-election on 12/26/67 as Chairman of the Local Kansas City, Missouri, CORE Chapter. The news article was generally complimentary to BROOKS, saying he had decided to run for the Chairmanship because of his opposition to a philosophy of "black folks doing black folks' businesses". Vote for BROOKS as Chairman, according to the article's headline, was an endorsement of BROOKS' policy of integrated leadership.

As to MICHAEL JAMES MILLER, Industrial Areas Foundation (IAF) advisor to CUA, and a Security Index subject of the Kansas City Office, there is no known local extremist, hate, or subversive group with which MILLER could be affiliated in the Kansas City Division. MILLER's job as IAF advisor to CUA is under the direction of SAUL ALINSKY, Chicago IAF Director. There is no present indication that MILLER will do anything of significance without the approval of ALINSKY. Despite "controversial" ALINSKY's national reputation as an agitator, all known indications in the Kansas City Division to date are that ALINSKY and his IAF carefully avoid any basis for a valid charge of influencing tension towards violence in IAF's projects nationwide. w

MILLER'S IAF role as CUA advisor in Kansas City, Missouri, has been to remain in the background of CUA activities, carried on substantially in the form of occasional "quickie"
but peaceful small demonstrations and picketing led by local Kansas City, Missouri, CUA leaders (largely Negro clergymen) who to date have had little, if any, adverse effect on the Kansas City, Missouri, Negro community and ghetto.

The Bureau has been advised in detail since early 1966 as to the formation, activities, and the financing of CUA by approximately $125,000.00 contributed mainly by two leading local white church groups, Catholic and The Episcopal church council recently voted its final $10,000.00 of financial support for CUA, according to LOUNNEER PEMBERTON, who sits with the council. PEMBERTON, a top local Negro professional in matters of employment. civil rights groups, and knowledgeable of racial conditions, at this time agrees with LEE SWINTON, NAACP leader, and Lt. JAMES HITCHCOCK, Law Enforcement Intelligence Unit, Kansas City, Missouri, Police Department, that there is no reason to anticipate a significant potential for racial tension or violence in CUA activities. MILLER's job as IAF advisor to CUA is expected to terminate at the termination of ALINSKY's IAF contract with the church groups in forming and CUA. It is PEMBERTON's understanding that this contract may terminate by June, 1968. PEMBERTON informed on 12/28/67 that a substantial number of CUA leaders and members have for sometime been disenchanted with MICHAEL JAMES MILLER as advisor to CUA, which indicates a possibility that MILLER's services as advisor could terminate before the contract termination date. 4

Source coverage of both CORE and CUA in Kansas City, Missouri, is considered adequate at this time. $\pmb{\omega}$

SUCCINCT RESUME OF ACTIVITIES

As the President of the Bogalusa Voters League, A. Z. YOUNG has organized and led civil rights demonstration and marches in Louisiana. He has concentrated his activities in the Bogalusa area and there have been numerous racial incidents in that city which are characteristic of a racially tense area. YOUNG has met with the Mayor of Bogalusa, Louisiana and other political leaders on numerous occasions and has presented Negro grievances to them at these times. YOUNG has also been active in Negro voter registration in the Bogalusa area.

YOUNG organized a civil rights march from Bogalusa to Baton Rouge in the summer of 1967.

ReLAlet and attached write-ups dated 1/2/68 captioned "Rabble Rouser Index, Subversive Control."

Based on the information included in write-up on Helen Gail Eaby in referenced communication, it appears that her activities at this stage do not bring her within the criteria for inclusion on the Rabble Rouser Index. office is in possession of more specific information or if information is developed in the future which would serve to qualify Eaby for inclusion in the Rabble Rouser Index, you should resubmit your recommendation. u

Information contained in referenced write-up failed to indicate that Eaby has demonstrated by her actions and speeches that she has a propensity for fomenting disorder of a racial and/or security nature and has attracted attention, nationally or locally, which would be of significant interest with regard to the overall civil disturbance picture. U

For additional guidance in handling this matter, you are referred to Section 122E of the Manual of Instructions and SAC Letter 67-70 dated 11/28/67. u

Scoggin are the only two individuals in the territory covered by the Columbia Office who are considered as rabble rousers. Activity concerning racial matters appears to be increasing in the territory covered by Columbia which would indicate that there are rabble rousers in the area. You should reexamine the files of your office to determine whether the activities of civil rights leaders. Ku Klux Klan leaders, and other individuals are sufficient to be considered in the Rabble Rouser Index. As an example, in your letterhead memorandum dated 6/16/67 captioned "Proposed March on Police Headquarters, Charleston, South Carolina, June 15, 1967," you furnished information indicating that one , the pastor of a local church, has been responsible for racial unrest in the Charleston, South Carolina, area for several years. More recently in December of 1967 a new organization was formed in Beaufort, South Carolina. That organization has staged almost daily meetings or marches and some of the leaders such as the have made speeches encouraging Negroes to continue their demonstrations pointing out that the white merchants prosper but will not hire Negroes. Leaders of the organization known as "The New Breed" appear to be continuing their activities. w You should take a more careful look at the activities of the individuals named above and furnish the Bureau your recommendations for including them on or excluding them from the Rabble Rouser Index. You should, of course, furnish ph Gat CAP:bjrJ appropriate justification for your recommendations. > ReBulet (SAC letter 67-70) setting forth instructions concerning Rabble Rouser Index and inclusion of personnel therein. w

A review of racial subjects in the Columbia Division reveals that this division has only two subjects that should be included in the file at this time. Their names are ROBERT E. SCOGGIN, Grand Dragon of the UKA. South Carolina Realm, and

The Columbia Division previously submitted SCOGGIN for inclusion in this file and the Savannah Division has submitted for inclusion as his office space is located in their division. 4

The Columbia Division will remain alert for subjects to be included in the Rabble Rouser file and will promptly submit their names per Bureau instructions. 4

Reurlet dated 12/28/67. w

Referenced letter indicates that you have no individuals in the territory covered by the Louisville Office who you consider rabble rousers. For an extended period of time during 1967 open-housing demonstrations were conducted in Louisville, Kentucky, on a regular basis. Among the individuals who were active in encouraging the Negroes to participate in these demonstrations were the Reverend A. D. Williams King of the West End Community Council and the Reverend Leo Lesser. ω

In your letterhead memorandum dated 10/4/67 captioned "Possible Racial Violence, Major Urban Areas," King urged Negroes to renew the street marches and suggested that they attend Aldermen meetings until something is done about an open-housing ordinance. In your 7/5/67 letterhead memorandum bearing the same caption was instrumental in leading a number of similar demonstrations during that period. \sim

You should again analyze the activities of the above individuals to determine whether they fit the expanded criteria for a rabble rouser as set forth in SAC Letter 67-70.4

In view of the volume of activity in the racial matters category, it would appear that there are rabble rousers present in the Louisville territory. You should furnish your recommendations to the Bureau concerning the inclusion or exclusion of the above individuals in the Rabble Rouser Index. Of course, you should furnish sufficient information to substantiate your recommendations. The above list of individuals is not intended to be all inclusive and you should include among your recommendations any other individuals known to your office who fit the criteria of a rabble rouser. RABBLE ROUSER INDEX

RE: SAC letter 67-70, dated 11/28/6

In view of the expanded criteria for inclusion of individuals on the Rabble Rouser Index an extensive analysis has been made by the Houston Division, and it is felt that while there are persons in the division who may ultimately fit the expanded criteria, there are presently no individuals other than those currently listed on the Rabble Rouser Index who are presently justified for inclusion thereon. ~

Houston realizes that should the racial situation abruptly change in Houston, persons may emerge as rabble rousers who will fit the criteria, however, at the present time Houston recommends no additional persons be included on the Rabble Rouser Index. This matter is being followed extremely close by the Houston Division. u

(SUBVERSIVE CONTROL)

Re Minneapolis letter dated 8/18/67; and SAC Letter 67-70 dated 11/28/67.

Individuals currently on the Security Index and the Reserve Index within the Minneapolis Division have been considered for inclusion on the Rabble Rouser Index. At the present time there are no individuals included on the above indexes who have demonstrated a desire or the ability to foment disorder which would warrant their being recommended for inclusion on the Rabble Rouser Index. μ

The Minneapolis Division has separate cases open for background investigation and evaluation concerning a number of persons recently involved in antiwar activities and racial matters, including those who have announced a desire to form a militant Negro movement in the Minneapolis area.

Security and Reserve Indexes will be evaluated on a continuing basis relative to additions to the Rabble Rouser Index. ω

Individuals on whom cases are open because of their involvement in antiwar or racial activities will each be considered for inclusion on the Rabble Rouser Index. ω

The Minneapolis Division will continue to be alert for subjects warranting recommendation for inclusion on the Rabble Rouser Index and the Bureau will be promptly notified.

RABBLE ROUSER INDEX
(RACIAL INTELLIGENCE SECTION)

Reurlet dated 12/27/67 in which you advise there are no known individuals within your territory who qualify for the Rabble Rouser Index under the expanded criteria. U

It is to be noted that racial disturbances have occurred this past year in several cities in the territory covered by your division, including Deerfield Beach, West Palm Beach, and Riviera Beach. It is also to be noted there is a considerable amount of activity within your division by such organizations as the United Klans of America, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, and the National States Rights Party.

In view of this, it is inconceivable that your office has no one who qualifies for the Rabble Rouser Index. You should immediately review your files for individuals who qualify for the Rabble Rouser Index as set forth in SAC Letter 67-70. A letter under the above caption listing the names of those individuals recommended for inclusion on the Rabble Rouser Index under the expanded criteria should be submitted to the Bureau by 1/24/68. This should be followed, of course, by a separate writeup on each individual recommended using the sample format previously furnished to you. ω

Referenced letter indicated that there are no individuals in the territory covered by the Knoxville Office to fit the criteria for inclusion in the Rabble Rouser Index. By letterhead memorandum dated 6/22/67 captioned "Stokely Carmichael, Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee, Proposed Visit, Chattanooga, Tennessee, Summer, 1967," your file 157-403, information was set forth indicating that addressed a letter to Carmichael containing an open invitation for him to visit Chattanooga and speak to the parishioners at ______ The letter indicated that Carmichael would be welcomed in brotherly love. ~

By letterhead memorandum dated 8/10/67 captioned "Former Governor George Wallace Appearance, Chattanooga, Tennessee, August 9, 1967," your file 157-292B, your office furnished information indicating that 30 to 35

Negro youths appeared at the Memorial Auditorium during Wallace's speech and heckled white citizens departing at the close of the speech. This group then moved into a nearby Negro neighborhood and shouted remarks at white citizens. They became disorderly, attempted to block streets and sidewalks, were loud and boisterous, and disobeyed Negro police officers who instructed them to move on. Five of the individuals were described as leaders and were arrested by the Chattanooga Police Department.

These individuals were identified as national convention of CORE in July 1964 voted HOBSON out of CORE. u

HOBSON reportedly indicated he would lead some CORE members into Associated Community Teams (ACT). He later became chairman of the ACT chapter in Washington, D. C. and is holding that position now. In July 1965, HOBSON belonged to the Organization for Black Power (OBP) which hoped to unite the more militant and radical civil rights and related organizations. The OBP no longer existed in May 1966. HOBSON has been critical of the District of Columbia Board of Education, the Superintendent of the District of Columbia Schools. He has filed suits against the above in the courts. The cases are pending. 4

WFO recommends that JULIUS WILSON HOBSON be included in the Rabble Rouser Index. \hdots

"The Evening Star", a daily, Washington, D.C. newspaper, dated 11/13/67, on the back page of the C section reported an article captioned "Hobson Urges Black Power Swing to Left". The article stated HOBSON had told a weekend symposium on black power to give leadership to the confusion of the black power movement by directing it toward the downfall of capitalism. He told the Howard University students present "Go left young man". According to the article, HOBSON urged the students to look to the socialist economics of Karl Marx for answers to injustice. He said that instead of spending time in street-corner protests. Howard students should be acquiring "the tolls of understanding" that can give the black power movement the philosophical base it needs. The article also reported HOBSON as having said "You can learn, even in Howard, the citadel of white power, enough to come out and lead the black power movement. This should be your life's work". U

RABBLE ROUSER INDEX (RACIAL INTELLIGENCE SECTION)

FOIA(b)(7) - (C)

Reurlet dated 12-18-67 advising that there are currently no individuals in the Pittsburgh Division who should be included on the Rabble Rouser Index. This does not appear to be consistent with the information you have previously furnished the Bureau regarding racial developments in your division.

A review of your semimonthly summaries under the caption "Possible Racial Violence, Major Urban Areas" discloses, for example, that there are several militant groups, such as the United Movement for Progress, the United Negro Protest Committee, and the Organizers, which are active in Pittsburgh. The leadership of these organizations should certainly be considered for inclusion on the Rabble Rouser Index. ω

Your attention is also directed to your semimonthly summary dated 9-20-67 which states that disobedience to achieve racial progress and freely makes inflammatory and irresponsible statements. The same memorandum reports that at a meeting of the Lincoln Park Civic Association held at the Lincoln Park School in Pittsburgh on 9-10-67,
